LOVE IS OF GOD

One of the apostle John's favorite subjects is love. In 1 John 4:7-8 he states, “7 Beloved, let us love one another, for love is of God; and everyone who loves is born of God and knows God. 8 He who does not love does not know God, for God is love” (NKJV).

Once stating this premise, John initiates an extended teaching on the significance of showing love (1 John 4:7-21). He starts by clarifying that the believer's ability to love comes from knowing God: “Anyone who loves is a child of God and knows God” (1 John 4:7, NLT).

The idea that “love is of God” (NKJV) can also be expressed as “love is from God” (ESV, NASB, CSB) and “love comes from God” (NIV, NLT). John explains that the fount of all love is God's divine nature meaning love has its origin in God because God is love by His very essence.

John shows why love is essential in the believer's life. Love is the litmus test of an authentic relationship with God. That litmus test is the yardstick or benchmark determining the quality, worth or authenticity of our love. If we are indeed children of God through faith in Jesus Christ, we share in His nature (2 Peter 1:4). Since God's nature is love and we are of His children, we will therefore exhibit love. So, demonstrating Christian love confirms the reality of our spiritual life.

“No one has ever seen God,” states John, “but if we love each other, God lives in us, and his love is brought to full expression in us” (1 John 4:12, NLT).

We are the handiwork of God's hands. – Ephesians 2:10

I have loved you
with an everlasting
love.

One Bible commentator defines the word love in this passage as “a consuming passion for the well-being of others, and this love has its wellspring in God” If we want to be like God, we will care deeply about the well-being of others because God is love. Love is not only who God is but what He does: “God showed how much he loved us by sending his one and only Son into the world so that we might have eternal life through him” (1 John 4:9, NLT).

We can thus claim that only those born of God’s Spirit can love in the fullness of its expression, which is sacrifice: “This is how we know what love is: Jesus Christ laid down his life for us. And we ought to lay down our lives for our brothers and sisters” (1 John 3:16 NIV).

We know that by human nature, due to biology, psychological and social factors, our love is selfish and conditional. We love those who love us. Love acts as a survival mechanism, fostering connections that meet personal needs of companionship and security. We love people who are sweet, kind-hearted and compassionate to us and who offer a benefit to us. But Jesus taught, “. . . Love your enemies, do good to those who hate you, bless those who curse you, pray for those who mistreat

you. If someone slaps you on one cheek, turn to them the other also. If someone takes your coat, do not withhold your shirt from them. Give to everyone who asks you, and if anyone takes what belongs to you, do not demand it back. Do to others as you would have them do to you. “If you love those who love you, what credit is that to you? Even sinners love those who love them. And if you do good to those who are good to you, what credit is that to you? Even sinners do that” (Luke 6:27–33 NIV).

God’s love is “agape” defined as self-sacrificing, selfless and unconditional. “Agape” loves those who don’t deserve our love, those who mistreat us, reject us, dissap-point us and even hate us. And “agape” is only possible when it is born of God in our hearts. “Agape” love is of God, initiated by God: “For God so loved the world that he gave his one and only Son, that whoever believes

We love because He first loved us.

– 1 John 4:19

in him shall not perish but have eternal life” (John 3:16 ESV).

John is telling us to love one another with an agape-style love because this not just reflects, but is how God loves. Jesus instructed, "Love each other as I have loved you. Greater love has no one than this: to lay down one's life for one's friends" (John 15:12-13 NIV). God illustrated what real love – agape love – looks like by giving, serving, loving, and dying for us. He established a new benchmark, setting the bar high for how we are to love others, especially our brothers and sisters in Christ.

God decided to reveal His love to the world through the way we love others. "Love each other," commanded Jesus. "Just as I have loved you, you should love each other. Your love for one another will prove to the world that you are my disciples" (John 13:34-35, NLT). God's love is made evident – it is manifest – as we love one another. The world sees the love of God expressed through the way we live our lives and love others.

"Love is of God" means that the love we show to others emanates from Him, the source. Believers can love with God's heart "because God's love has been poured out into our hearts through the Holy Spirit, who has been given to us" (Romans 5:5 ESV). God is the source, the fountain, the wellspring of our love for others. The love we show others mirrors God's love for us because it flows from His heart into ours and out to others.

Brethren, have we become spiritual dwarfs because we lack love? I believe we may know the Word, we may never miss a service, we may pray fervently and we may demonstrate gifts of the Spirit. Even so, in it all we can be like Cain, offering to God the fruit of our hands and not the fruit of the Spirit. Remember our Lord said, <sup>20</sup>"If someone says, 'I love God,' and hates his brother, he is a liar; for he who does not love his brother whom he has seen, how can he love God whom he has not seen?" (1 John 4:20 NKJV). By this crucial measure, Jesus said the world could measure our status as His disciples by the degree of our love for one another. END

Scripture Verses

John 15:12-13 – <sup>12</sup>This is My commandment, that you love one another as I have loved you. <sup>13</sup>Greater love has no one than this, than to lay down one’s life for his friends.

Luke 6:27-33 – <sup>27</sup>“But I say to you who hear: Love your enemies, do good to those who hate you, <sup>28</sup>bless those who curse you, and pray for those who spitefully use you. <sup>29</sup>To him who strikes you on the one cheek, offer the other also. And from him who takes away your cloak, do not withhold your tunic either. <sup>30</sup>Give to everyone who asks of you. And from him who takes away your goods do not ask them back. <sup>31</sup>And just as you want men to do to you, you also do to them likewise. <sup>32</sup>“But if you love those who love you, what credit is that to you? For even sinners love those who love them. <sup>33</sup>And if you do good to those who do good to you, what credit is that to you? For even sinners do the same.
