

Honoring Mom All Year Long

Bible Verse:

"Honor your father and your mother."

— Exodus 20:12

Why Do We Honor Our Moms?

Mother's Day is wonderful — cards, flowers, hugs, and maybe even breakfast that almost didn't burn. But God told us something even bigger in Exodus 20:12

Honoring your mom means showing love, respect, and kindness all year long — even on the days when you're tired, busy, or not in the mood. God gave you your mom as a gift, and honoring her is one way you honor Him.

What Does "Honor" Look Like?

Here are some everyday ways kids your age can honor their moms:

- Listen the first time — it shows respect
- Help without being asked — it shows love
- Speak kindly — it shows gratitude
- Pray for her — it shows faith
- Say "thank you" often — it shows appreciation
- Be patient — moms have long days too

Even small things matter. God sees every act of kindness.

A Year Of Honoring Mom

Honoring Mom in Every Season

Spring

- Help with cleaning or yard work
- Make her a cheerful note or drawing
- Thank her for something she does every day

Summer

- Help carry groceries
- Offer to help with younger siblings
- Pray for her when she's stressed or tired

Fall

- Help with dinner or dishes
- Encourage her with a Bible verse
- Help with dinner or dishes

Winter

- Give her extra hugs
- Write her a "Reasons I Love You" list
- Be patient when she's busy or overwhelmed

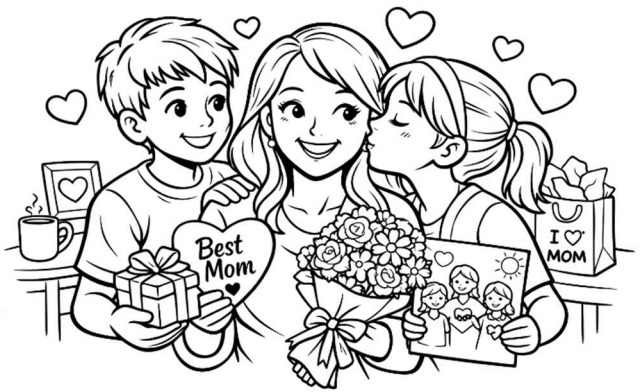

Honoring your mom isn't about being perfect — it's about being loving.

Bible Spotlight

Jesus Honored His Mother. When Jesus was on the cross, He made sure His mother Mary would be cared for (John 19:26-27). Even in His hardest moment, He honored her. If Jesus honored His mother, we should too — not just on Mother's Day, but every day.

Prayer

"Dear God, thank You for my mom. Help me honor her with my words, my actions, and my heart — not just on Mother's Day, but all year long. Amen."
